

To our parents, present and passed. A hardy generation – they should build battleships out of them.

